Gala Birthday Party Marks Anniversary of Girl Scouts

New York, March 13.—(INS)—When Girl Scouts light the candles on their birthday cake on March 12, they will be celebrating the anniversary of the organization which has grown to be one of the most important of the world's youth organizations.

Girl Scouts believe that as they grow up, they should be able to help others. They offer instant help when a stranger is in need. They are alert to the changes going on in the world about them, they are quick to do their bit to help a need.

Girl Scouts learn to appreciate the contributions of other countries to the culture of America, and they believe in international friendship as a means to world peace. High up in the Alps at Aachen, Switzerland, is a charming little house which the Girl Scouts call "Our Chalet." Here girls from all parts of the world meet and become friends.

Registration for fair Girl Scouts would like to share their international community with all girls. So a reproduction of "Our Chalet" has been made for the New York world fair. It will be dedicated on March 12.

Present at the dedication ceremonies will be Mrs. Herbert Hoover, Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt, Mrs. Theodor Roosevelt, Jr., vice president of the Girl Scouts, and Bernard Baruch, chief of the American delegation to the world fair.

Many home owners, merchants, factory supervisors and apartment house operators attest to the quality of Warren's work.

HOOD RIVER, Ore. March 14.—(INS)—If they hadn't been so tired from spending the night last on Mount Hood and about a looking hillside, Bob Puller and Blanche Baldwin, youthful mountain climbers, would have been looking for more.

They attempted to climb Mount Hood but were overtaken by a snowstorm and compelled to spend the night in the open. Wounded friends organized a search party numbering 100 strong.

Puller and Baldwin, nearly from their night in the open sought to climb the mountain from the west side. Several times they slipped and were looking for a pair of thick hikers and were too busy to look for them.

The two boys climbed to the summit of the mountain and were looking for a pair of thick hikers and were too busy to look for them.

The Wishing Well

HERE is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

Bradley high school basketball team, first Kankakee county five to reach the state tournament in the 32 years of the prep classic, came down to earth this afternoon with a tradition weighing heavily on its shoulders.

its eggs in the Bradley basket this season. In 1937 Joliet, after beating Bradley in the opening round, were racing through to the state championship, defeating Decatur in the championship finals.

Then last year a great Bradley team tumbled before mighty Duquoin, and the latter went sailing on to hand Braidwood a defeat in the title game a year ago when Saturday night. Bradley, with 32 wins in 33 games and the best record of any of the "sweet sixteen," has the Bradley team.

Coach Pete Laffey and his boys drew the curtain on celebration after school this afternoon and donned their practice suits in preparation for the opening state game against Centalla, Mt. Vernon sectional winner, at 7 o'clock Thursday night. This afternoon's practice was not expected to be too severe, but tomorrow's will be a bit more, both.

Then Thursday morning Laffey, Assistant Earl Jones and the boys of the squad will head for Champaign. The coach will plan his players in a hotel, the name of which he does not care to divulge because well-meaning fans might bother the boys before the game.
